

Arts & Business Scotland 30th Annual Awards Winners

Enterprise sponsored by Turcan Connell

Recognises a partnership that has shared business expertise or developed entrepreneurial opportunities which have contributed to not-for-profit cultural organisations operating more efficiently as businesses.

Winners

Glasgow City Council & Art Pistol

Innovation sponsored by Black Light

Recognises a partnership that, by combining the expertise and resources of both partners, has resulted in the development of pioneering and transformative digital, technological, artistic or educational output for the cultural organisation.

Winners

Scottish Environment Protection Agency & Right Lines Productions

International

Recognises a partnership that has supported the cultural organisation's international activities or that has leveraged international support for the cultural activities of an organisation within Scotland.

Winners

IFS Worldwide & Cultural Documents

People

Recognises a partnership that has used the power of culture to engage with and educate people in Scotland's communities, evidencing the contribution that culture can make to improve health, wellbeing, confidence and quality of life.

Winners

Deloitte & National Theatre of Scotland

Placemaking sponsored by VisitScotland

Recognises a partnership which has shaped the cultural activities in a particular geographical area to celebrate the very best of Scotland's creative, cultural and historic wealth, and/or can show how cultural tourism can raise the profile of Scotland at home and abroad.

Winners

MacRoberts LLP & The Cumnock Tryst

Arts & Business Scotland 30th Annual Awards Winners

Business Creativity sponsored by Inksters Solicitors

Launched in 2015, the Business Creativity category recognises a business for taking the lead in establishing and developing partnerships with one or more cultural organisations in order to drive and develop commercial opportunities for both parties which impacts the wider community.

Winner

Check-It Scaffold Services

Enterprising Museum sponsored by Museums Galleries Scotland

Recognises an innovative or entrepreneurial project that has delivered an ambitious high-impact museum experience in 2015-16.

Winner

Auchindrain for The Runrig Project

Fundraising Excellence

This new category for the 30th Awards recognises an individual or team that has made a significant contribution to the fundraising efforts of an arts, cultural or heritage organisation in Scotland. This is open to professional fundraisers, volunteers or Board members.

Winners

Elly Rothnie & Stella Litchfield, National Theatre of Scotland

Glasgow Life Award for Inclusion sponsored by Glasgow Life

Recognises a project or organisation that enables individuals, groups and communities experiencing discrimination to participate in culture and arts and fully express the richness and diversity of modern Scotland.

Winner

Indepen-dance

Leadership

Celebrates an individual who has shown outstanding leadership in the arts. This may be leading a cultural organisation through a significant period of change or ensuring the sustainability of a cultural organisation.

Winner

Bruce Minto OBE